HLTAID014 Provide Advanced First Aid

Release #: 1 | Release Date: 16/10/2020

Course Description

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to provide an advanced first aid response to a casualty in line with first aid guidelines determined by the Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) and other Australian national peak clinical bodies.

The unit applies to all persons who may be required to provide an advanced first aid response in a range of situations, including community and workplace settings.

Specific licensing/regulatory requirements relating to this competency, including requirements for refresher training should be obtained from the relevant national/state/territory Work Health and Safety Regulatory Authorities.

Target Cohort / Entry Requirements

This course is intended for:

- Workplace first aid officers and appointed advanced first aiders responsible for managing complex emergencies
- Supervisors, team leaders, and managers with responsibility for coordinating first aid responses
- Workers in high-risk industries such as construction, mining, manufacturing, and utilities
- Remote or isolated workers who may need to manage incidents without immediate medical support
- Emergency response team members in larger organisations or sites
- Health and safety (WHS) officers and advisors overseeing workplace emergency preparedness
- Personnel requiring a higher level of first aid capability beyond standard first aid training
- Experienced first aiders seeking to upgrade skills for more advanced incident management and care

Entry requirements may include:

- Language, literacy, numeracy and digital skills (LLND test may apply)
- Minimum age of 18 (If under 18 parental consent is required).
- Physical requirements - A participant must be in good health and medically fit for work.
- All students participating in VET qualifications are required to have a Unique Student Identifier (USI).

- The RTO will provide the prospective student with a Course Suitability Checklist that will help the student and the Trainer / Assessor if the course is relevant and applicable to students' needs.
- The RTO will provide constructive and honest feedback to the prospective student if it is decided that the VET student does not yet have the LLN+D skills or meet the entry requirements to cope with the rigor of the training and assessment material and process.
